Copy of resolution no.10 passed by the District Local Board, Surat, at its meeting held on 7th November 1908.

X. The Board unanimously resolved that in supersession of the rules now in force, the following rules should be adopted, in future, for admission into the Parekh Technical Institute, and awarding the boys of the District Local Fund scholarships, while they are studying at the Institute.

1. The maximum limit of age fixed for a candidate is 22 and the minimum 14 years.

2. Every canndidate should have studied at least upto the vernacular VI standard.

3. Every candidate should endeavour to join the ---- school in January. Any wishing to join in the middle or at the end of the year will not be admitted except for special reasons.

4. Local Fund scholarships will be tenable for 3 years only, or in case time taken to complete the course is in excess of that period, for such longer period as is necessary for receiving full training in any subjects

5. In giving scholarships, preference will be given to kaliparaj boys and other poorer classes of people, such as carpenters, artificers, etc. etc., and in their absence, vacant scholarships will be bestowed on other candidates, who are, by reason of their qualifications, eligible for such scholarships.

6. Should any candidate fail to get through the ---- examinations within the period prescribed for the course he shall not be permitted to retain his scholarship -- beyond the fixed period, to the exclusion of other eligible candidates for assistance.

7. In supersession of the Board's resolution passed at their meeting held on 13th November 1899 and 10th November 1902 respectively it is laid down that there should be 8 scholarships of Rs.4 each and one of Rs.3 per mensem instead of the present scale of scholarships, which should be abolished from the date of the completion of the proposed residential quarters at the school, as --- directed in the Board's Resolution no.XV passed at their meeting held on the 27th June 1925, and that, in future, --- candidates for scholarships should be selected by the President, District Local Board.
